

Time to make it FB official!

After a little over 6 years at CBS in Dallas/Fort Worth I am starting a new chapter! I'm getting back in touch with my inner latina, and taking on the role of News Director at Univision in Dallas. It is a huge step for me professionally, and one that means I can keep my family here in North Texas - where Jason LOVES his new job, Joshua has the world's best day care and we all have a great circle of friends.

I'm sorry to say goodbye to my CBS 11 family, but the good news is the stations have a strong working relationship... so y'all aren't quite done with me yet!

Adelante!