

NO MORE SWEATER VESTS

Really? Promise? Yes, I do. You won't be seeing sweater vests on a regular basis at WNDU. The elderly man who wears them is retiring. What? Yes!

Why? Life is a very precious gift.....and you only go around once. So you have to live it as much as possible. Since I am blessed with good health and my mind is intact.... although I know some of you would disagree. I want to experience some of the things the world has to offer and catch up with old friends who are scattered all over the country and in other parts of the world. When you have been in a career for 40 years and have lived in seven states not all your buds are nearby. Plus....like everyone else I have a ton of projects that there just has not been enough time to complete. So, I won't be bored.

I will still be around for the next six weeks. My final day is Friday, March 31. So, sweater vests through March! Then it is off to Barcelona for a week as some close friends celebrate 50 years of marriage.
