

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Steve Capus as Senior Advisor to the CEO of the U.S. Agency for Global Media (USAGM). As part of USAGM's senior management team, Steve will provide expert advice and guidance on all matters involving the Agency's mission and operations, as well as developing and implementing the Agency's strategic plan and priorities.

With more than 30 years of experience including four years as Executive Editor of CBS News and nearly eight years as President of NBC News, Steve brings extensive knowledge and proficiency in journalism, production, senior management, multi-platform newsroom transformation, strategy development, communications, and executive education. Since joining USAGM earlier this year, Steve's skill as a management expert has been invaluable to me and USAGM leadership on a variety of key initiatives.

The Board and I appreciate the value that Steve will bring to USAGM and its networks going forward.

Please join me in congratulating him.

Sincerely,

John F. Lansing
