Team,

Please join me in welcoming (back) Bob Goldberger as the new Assistant News Director at NBC Bay Area. Bob joins us from KGO-TV where he has spent the last 13 years as Executive Producer.

Bob and I met 17 years ago when we both worked at 645 Park Avenue when KNTV was the San Jose station. Ever since, Bob has impressed me with his calm demeanor, solid news judgement and determined work ethic.

He is uniquely qualified for this position because of his knowledge of the Bay Area and because he clearly understands where the station came from, where it stands today and the exciting future that lies ahead.

Bob starts November 28th.

Thanks,
Steph
