Leading the local news division at Scripps since 2014 has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my career. Working with some of the most talented people in the industry, united behind a mission to elevate the quality of local journalism, modernize the approach and serve our communities even better. As I move to the next chapter in my journey, I thank everyone who I have had the honor of working with at this crucial time in our industry. I thank Scripps for allowing me to help lead the mission. For all the journalists and editorial leaders: Keep fighting the fight. What we do is more important than ever. A heart-felt thanks to everyone who has reached out today. Your words have been kind and more meaningful than I can express.
