FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CBS 21 Hires Bryan Queen as News Director

Harrisburg, PA, August 4, 2016 – CBS 21 General Manager, Bill Bradley, announced that Bryan Queen has been named as News Director of CBS 21. Mr. Queen will be responsible for the oversight of the CBS 21 News Team including both the on-air and digital platforms.

In making the announcement, Mr. Bradley said, “We are excited to welcome Bryan to Harrisburg. He has the experience, vision and proven track record of success to lead CBS 21 News and grow our audience both on-air and online.”

“I am thrilled to be joining the talented team of professionals at CBS 21,” said Mr. Queen. “I look forward to working with everyone at the station, both on-air and off-air, to create informative and engaging news content and productions that serve the great people of Central Pennsylvania well.”

Mr. Queen has worked for over twenty years in broadcast news including as a photographer/reporter, Assignment Editor, Producer and News Director. He most recently served as News Director at WIS-TV in Columbia, South Carolina. There he was instrumental in rebuilding the WIS weather and investigative teams. Prior to that he was the News Director at WROC-TV/WUHF-TV in Rochester, New York. From 2008 – 2009.
