Subject: Thank you

I want to share the result of conversations I have been having with first Rebecca Campbell and more recently, Wendy McMahon, about where I am in life right now, and my thoughts for the future.

I've been with the Company for almost 40 years, and while I have always loved my job and what we do here (so incredibly well), lately my thoughts have been more about life beyond work. I know I've told some of you how it was becoming more difficult to leave Sag Harbor on Sunday afternoons.

So it is with mixed emotions that I'm writing to let you know that I am retiring from WABC. Having decided this, I think it best to move on quickly. No time like the present.

Leaving a place and people you care for is always difficult, but this is the right time. I know you will continue to grow and prosper under new leadership, and selfishly I look forward to enjoying the rewards of working 40 years.

You are in great hands with Wendy at the helm, and I'm sure there will be a smooth transition, which I will help with any way I can.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for all that you have done for me personally, and to make WABC the #1 television station in the country.

Thanks,
Dave
