

Deyja Charles has been named the new executive producer of WBRZ News 2, effective Tuesday, Jan. 2. She will work with managing editor and anchor Michael Shingleton to oversee the 10 p.m. newscast and help lead breaking news coverage for the 4, 5 and 6 p.m. newscasts. Charles, a native of California, also will be responsible for managing late-breaking, evening news on WBRZ.com and on social media platforms. She previously worked for KFBB/KHBB in Great Falls, Montana, and received a master's degree in International Relations from Webster University in St. Louis.