Team,

We held a couple of meetings to within the newsroom so you might already be aware, but I did want to send a formal announcement. It is with mixed emotions that I announce the resignation of News Director Sarah Burgess.

Sarah came to the station in 2005, first working on the I team, then Managing Editor and finally in 2018 was promoted to Boston 25 News Director. As News Director, she managed the team through COVID, a Cyber event and countless news events. I have always appreciated her unwavering commitment, work ethic, professionalism, and her passion for good journalism.

While we are sad to see Sarah leave, we are also excited for her as she embarks on a new chapter. Sarah's last day will be this Friday, April 19th. If you have a chance stop by her office to bid, her farewell.

We have already started the search for a News Director and hope to have a hire soon. In the meantime, Misti Turnbull will be our interim News Director during this time of transition, and I will announce her schedule soon.
