

I'm pleased to announce Bryan Queen will be joining the News 13 team as our News Director. It's a homecoming for Bryan, who is from North Carolina.

Bryan has been the News Director at Sinclair's WHP in Harrisburg, PA, for the last 7 years, where he has consistently innovated to adapt to the changing news landscape. Bryan has shown he excels at leveraging our strategies to serve the community and drive ratings. His team in Harrisburg has been distinctive in showcasing the big story, investigative emphasis, drone use and multiplatform content coverage.

Bryan has also worked as a News Director in multiple markets in the Carolinas, Rochester, NY, and he spent 7 years with NBC news in various capacities. Bryan has been recognized throughout his career with a variety of awards.

He's excited to return to the area. "North Carolina is home, and it's wonderful that my journey brings me right back to where I started," Bryan said. "It will be great to work with this talented team on impactful stories for Western North Carolina."

As a Western Carolina University graduate with a BA and MA, Bryan began his career at WLOS.
