Since his arrival more than three years ago, Tom Powell has been a key part of the new “Fort Wayne’s NBC” – from his work on the anchor desk alongside Linda to his special reports and long-form programs to his involvement in the community. All along, he has also helped shape our channel as an advocate and coach for his team.

As we continue to grow and expand our reach, Tom assumes a new official capacity as Assistant News Director for Fort Wayne’s NBC. In this capacity, he will work closely with channel-specific producers and on-air team members and lead branding of “big story” coverage, organize sweeps plans (“TSRs”) and plan coverage of major events (think elections, inaugurations, Olympics). With Ian as content manager for the joint news operation, we now have two managers back on the evening shift.

I’m excited to have Tom take on these new challenges and help keep our momentum going strong!
