Subject: WTVM/WXTX News/Content Director Moves On to WGCL

As I announced in the meeting on Monday, Shawn Reynolds is leaving WTVM after a little more than two years as our News/Content Director.

Shawn is moving 90 miles north to Atlanta and WGCL, where he will be the morning news executive producer.

I want to thank Shawn for his contributions to WTVM, especially in terms of his talent recruitment - helping find us so many capable and hard working anchors, producers and reporters - and for improving our overall news content.

I know Shawn will take the experience he gained at WTVM and use it to continue to refine and build his news management career at WGCL.

Please join me in wishing Shawn much success in the future.

The search for his replacement has begun and I will keep you all posted as the process moves along.

Thank you!
